Flagler Library holds ‘White Table Ceremony’

November 3, 2016 – The Flagler County Public Library Palm Coast Branch will hold a “White Table Ceremony” to honor service men and women who are Prisoners of War or Missing in Action.

“The POW/MIA Honor Guard Detachment of 157 Air Force ROTC at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University will perform the ceremony,” said Library Director Holly Albanese.

“Refreshments will follow, provided by the Friends of the Library.”

The ceremony, rich with military tradition, will be presented at noon on November 10. It represents the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines held prisoner or missing in action from all wars.

“This will be a very moving ceremony,” Albanese said. “We are presenting it in recognition of Veterans Day.”

The table and ceremony script will remain set up at the library through Monday, November 14.

“This is such a wonderful ceremony,” Flagler County Commissioner George Hanns said. “It’s important to honor our service men and women, as well as our veterans.”

The library is located at 2500 Palm Coast Parkway Northwest.
