FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Status updates in Flagler County Monday, October 10

October 10, 2016 – There have been several status updates in Flagler County that are effective immediately. Please see the bullet points listed below:

- The curfew remains in effect on the barrier island only – 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. daily until further notice.
- Beach and boardwalks closed in Flagler Beach
- State Road A1A is closed in Flagler Beach between South 8th Street and South 22nd Street and on the north end of town between North 19th Street and North 23rd Street.
- State Road A1A is closed to through traffic in the unincorporated areas of Flagler County immediately north of Beverly Beach.
- Regular household waste collection resumes on Monday. The collection schedule will be the normal collection schedule. This includes recycle collections.
- County residents are asked to place any storm-generated debris on the public right-of-way. Debris removal operations will begin on Monday, October 10.
  - The public right-of-way is the area of residential property that extends from the street to the sidewalk, ditch, utility pole, or easement on PUBLIC ROADWAYS.
  - Keep vegetative debris (woody burnable debris such as limbs and shrubbery) separated from construction and demolition debris, as they will be collected separately.
  - Only debris that was generated from the storm will be collected. Bagged debris should not be placed on the public right-of-way; only loose debris will be collected.
- The ban on alcohol sales has been lifted. Residents are asked to continue to follow all Florida laws regarding alcohol.
- Closed offices: Flagler County, Flagler County Schools, Flagler County Health Department, Wickline Senior Center (800 S. Daytona Avenue), David Siegel Adult Day Center (1000 Belle Terre Blvd.)
• OPEN OFFICES: Flagler County Supervisor of Elections.

• Comfort Center: Palm Coast Branch of the Flagler County Public Library will be open from noon until 5 p.m. Limited services available. There will be a limited supply of water and ready-to-eat meals distributed from this location.
