FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Flagler County opens call-in center

September 6, 2017 – The Flagler County Emergency Operations Center opened a call-in center on Wednesday.

“A team of staff and volunteers began manning the phone lines at 1 p.m. They will answer calls through 6 p.m.,” said Steve Garten, public safety emergency manager. “They will resume taking calls at 6 a.m. Thursday.”

The call-in center number is 386-586-5111.

“We strongly encourage everyone to take Hurricane Irma very seriously. If you haven’t already, please make your personal preparations,” County Administrator Craig Coffey said. “Make sure your important documents are in a water-tight container. Also, have water and non-perishable food. If you think you are going to need to evacuate, make plans to do so now.”

All Hurricane Irma news releases will be posted at www.flaglercounty.org/irma.
