FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FEMA Disaster Recovery Center coming to Flagler Library

October 16, 2017 – The FEMA Disaster Recovery Center is coming to the Flagler County Library Main Palm Coast Branch Tuesday afternoon through Saturday.

“If you need additional assistance with FEMA registration for disaster claims, mucking, roof tarping, or other questions regarding disaster assistance, please come,” said Janet Nickels, Flagler County Human Services Program Manager, “We know there are people who still need assistance. Please take advantage of the resources that will be there.”

There will be in-person support for individuals and small business owners. Recovery specialists from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) will be available to provide assistance to anyone filling out their applications or updating their status.

Also, other participating Agencies include: SHIP (State Housing Initiative Partnership); SNAP (formerly the Food Stamps Program); Flagler Volunteer Services; and, an insurance representative to answer general homeowner insurance questions.

The Disaster Recovery Center will be open from 1 to 8 p.m. on Tuesday, October 17, and from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. the remainder of the week through Saturday. The Flagler Main Palm Coast Branch Library is located at the intersection of Belle Terre Parkway and Palm Coast Parkway NW.

Residents can also register with FEMA online at https://www.disasterassistance.gov. The FEMA helpline number is 800-621-3362, and TTY users can call 800-462-7585.

###