Flagler County parks closed due to debris, downed power lines

September 14, 2017 – Flagler County’s Park Department has closed all of its parks in the wake of Hurricane Irma. Boat ramps are open.

“Right now all of our parks are closed, as we are clearing debris and we have a few with down power lines,” said General Services Director Heidi Petito. “Although our community centers didn’t suffer damages, they are without power.”

The goal is to have them reopened by the weekend.
