FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sunday: alcohol sales suspended, curfew expanded

September 9, 2017 – Flagler County has issued an emergency order suspending the sale of alcohol starting at 7 a.m. Sunday, and expanding the curfew from just the beachside to include the entire county.

The ban on the sale of alcohol includes bars and restaurants in addition to liquor stores and grocery stores.

“Saturday night there is a curfew for Zone A which includes everything east of the Intracoastal,” said Flagler County Emergency Manager Steve Garten. “Sunday’s curfew will be in place for all of Flagler County.”

The curfew will be in effect from 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. until further notice.

Once Hurricane Irma reaches Flagler County – which is anticipated sometime Sunday, depending on weather conditions – residents are asked to stay indoors and off the roadways until the hurricane has past the area and damage assessments have been made.

“We don’t want residents to put themselves in danger,” County Administrator Craig Coffey said. “Please stay safe.”

Check for current information on Flagler County’s website www.flaglercounty.org, or tune into the county’s partner radio station WNZF, 1550 am, 106.3 fm, KIX fm 98.7, and the Flagler Radio App worldwide. Follow “Flagler County Government” or “Flagler County Emergency Management on Facebook or Twitter. The county’s social media team will provide updates through these official accounts:

- Facebook.com/FlaglerCountyGovernment
- Facebook.com/FlaglerEOC
- Twitter.com/FlaglerCtyGov

http://www.flaglercounty.org
• Twitter.com/FlaglerEM
• Flagler TV Spectrum Channel 492

###