FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

David Lydon to host ‘Veterans on Point’ radio show

February 20, 2018 – Flagler County Veterans Services officer, David Lydon, will host a WNZF radio talk show called “Veterans on Point.”

“Lydon is the perfect host for this local radio talk show with his vast knowledge, his network of local veterans organizations, and his position with the county,” said David Ayres, general manager of Flagler Broadcasting. “Plus, he is still actively serving in the United States Air Force Reserves.”

The first program will air at 9:30 a.m. Sunday, March 4.

The radio show is designed to give local veterans a voice – and a listen – to many issues and challenges that veterans and their families face, including information about the Veterans Administration and special events. Guests to the program will include local, regional and national entities that focus on Flagler County’s veteran community.

“This is a first for me,” said Lydon, who has been a guest on the Free-for-All Friday WNZF radio program. “I look forward to the opportunity to use another method of communicating information to our county’s veterans.”

Lydon holds the rank of major as part-time United States Air Force Reserve squadron commander, 927th Security Forces Squadron, at MacDill Air Force Base. Additionally, he is president of the Military Officers Association of America, a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 8696, and the American Legion Post 115.

“I think it is a testament to David that he is finding new and creative ways to get out information to help our veterans,” said County Administrator Craig Coffey.

The program will air 9:30 to 10 a.m. Sunday mornings on 1550 AM and 106.3 FM. It will also stream live at WNZF.com, as well as on Google Play and Amazon Echo.
