FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Evacuations Ordered, general population and pets shelter to open at noon

September 2, 2019 – Effective at noon today, residents and visitors in Evacuation Zones A, B, and F, as well as those living in flood prone areas and mobile/manufactured homes countywide are directed to evacuate in advance of Hurricane Dorian’s impact to Flagler County.

Those residents and visitors whose evacuation plan is to leave Flagler County should do so immediately.

“Now is the time to take a deep breath and to make sure you have an emergency plan for you and your family,” Emergency Management Director Jonathan Lord said. “Being prepared helps us to help you. These are shelters of last resort so if you can stay with a friend or relative, please do so.”

Residents whose evacuation plan is to remain in Flagler County, be sure to complete your evacuation no later than 3 p.m. on Tuesday.
