FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FlaglerSupports.biz hosts webinar Thursday to assist sole proprietors, 1099s

April 1, 2020 – Flagler County offices of Tourism Development and Economic Development are hosting a webinar Thursday assist businesses navigate available program funding for sole proprietors, 1099s, and gig workers.

The webinar will be held 11 a.m. Thursday, April 23, at <https://zoom.us/j/95657854590>.

“We have invited Robin King, President of CareerSource Flagler Volusia,” said Economic Development Manager Kat Friel. “We will discuss the short-term compensation program, reemployment benefits assistance, getting people back to work, and will close with a question and answer session.”

Additional webinars will be held in the future for other segments of business and industry – next week will be a session for nonprofit businesses. Watch for details.

“Professionals who have experience filing claims, or who have a broader understanding and knowledge of the programs available to businesses, are invited to participate as panelists for upcoming webinars,” said Economic Development Manager Kat Friel.

She can be reached at 386-313-4070, or by email at kfriel@flaglercounty.org.

All residents and businesses must abide by Executive and Emergency Orders, and follow Florida Department of Health and CDC guidance, to include:

- Staying home except when engaged in essential services or activities
- Wearing cloth face coverings when out in public
- Practicing aggressive social distancing at all times – people should keep a minimum of 6 feet of space between one another, and keep groups to less than 10, which includes while shopping and waiting in the check-out line
- Frequent hand washing for at least 20 seconds, or use an alcohol-based (at least 60% alcohol) hand sanitizer when soap and water are not available
