Flagler County announces office, library closures for the holidays

December 16, 2020 – The offices of the Flagler County Board of County Commissioners will be closed Christmas Eve and Christmas day, reopening on December 28, and New Year’s Eve and New Year’s Day, reopening on January 4. Bunnell Library’s hours match those of the County Commission, but the Palm Coast Main Branch Library will be open December 31.

“It’s important for us to be open New Year’s Eve this year, because many people will refrain from going out and celebrating the way they do in typical years and may want to come in to check out some movies or books for a different kind of entertainment for the evening,” said Library Director Holly Albanese. “Both locations – Bunnell and Palm Coast – will be closed on the Saturdays following the holidays.”
