2. Minutes from March 28th were approved as written.
3. Set-up (see #4)
4. Meet with FCSO

We changed meeting location due to inclement weather. Instead the group met in the Ops room of the EOC and put the map of the Government Services Complex on the television screens. There was a discussion of the committee and Flagler County Sheriff's Office representatives with an extensive review of the map of the complex. Set-up, traffic concerns and locations of all external activities were agreed upon.

5. Other Committee Comments:

- a. Carl Landrie –
 - i. Received a call from Burt Green who did a television production on Flagler County Integration. Committee decided to have this and the Ben Brotemarkle production playing on the televisions inside the government services building.
 - ii. Carl is also getting the black cowboy exhibit for the main event day.
 - iii. Discussion on sign locations for the main event.
 - iv. Food Truck Monster Lobster backed out so we are trying to get the Funnel Cake truck.
- b. Art Dycke – Wanted to know when and where to bring old ITT signs.
- c. John Dalton – Wanted to know if we have planned for transportation from Bings to Longs Landing for the paddle trip.
- d. Sisco Deen- Announced that Ben Brotemarkle is going to do a special screening of the production of the History of Flagler County he filmed while in the county. Although it will air on PBS he is allowing us to screen early. Sisco was able to get the Flagler Auditorium for Monday April 17, 2017 at 7pm. The screening will be free to all.

e. Holly Albanese –

- i. Holly distributed flyer for fun/run walk. She also distributed information on commemorative medals for the fun/run walk. The cost is $279 for 100 medals. We will give to the first 100 to the finish line. The committee approved the expenditure and the flyer as is.
- ii. Holly distributed the sign-up sheets to remind everyone which time slots they signed up for to man the table at the County Fair.

10. The next meeting of the Centennial Committee is scheduled for April 11, 2017 at 1:30 p.m. at the Emergency Operations Center in the Executive Conference Room.

11. Adjournment 3:39 p.m.
