

FLAGLER COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY YOUNG ADULT DEPARTMENT PRESENTS

*A Celebrate Earth Day
Movie Matinee
Saturday, April 22, 2017
1:30 P.M.
Movie Rating: PG*

Sitka, a young Inuit hunter, is killed by a mother bear protecting her cubs. With revenge in mind, his younger brother, Kenai, seeks revenge and sets out into the woods only to find himself magically transformed into a bear as punishment. If he wishes to be changed back to human form, Kenai must travel to the place where the lights touch the Earth. Seeing the world through the eyes of his prey, Kenai is forced to learn a lesson about nature and life. (This animated feature film was the last movie created by the artists at the Disney Orlando Studio.)

Children under 12 must be accompanied by a parent/adult, and the parent/adult must remain with the child(ren) during the program.
