1. What is Florida HFA Hardest-Hit Fund (HHF)?

Florida Housing Finance Corporation (Florida Housing) was directed by US Treasury (Treasury) to create and administer foreclosure prevention assistance programs that address the unique issues of our state. Treasury requires that Florida use a portion of these funds specifically for targeted unemployment programs that provide temporary assistance to eligible homeowners.

2. What programs are available?

Florida Housing has two unemployment programs:

Unemployment Mortgage Assistance Program (UMAP)

For homeowners who are underemployed, unemployed, or have had at least a 10 percent reduction of income due to a qualifying financial hardship, loan funds can be used to pay monthly mortgage and escrowed mortgage-related expenses (i.e., property taxes, homeowner insurance, and mortgage insurance) until the homeowner can resume payments or for up to 12 months, with a cap of $24,000, whichever occurs first.

Additionally, for homeowners who are delinquent on the first mortgage at the time they qualify for the UMAP program, up to $18,000 can be paid towards any past due amounts. This assistance is typically paid prior to UMAP payments and can reinstate the first mortgage.

Mortgage Loan Reinstatement Payment (MLRP) Program

For homeowners who have experienced and recovered from a qualifying financial hardship, loan funds can be used as a one-time payment towards any past due amount: up to $25,000 will be paid.

3. How much assistance is available to me?

For UMAP, a homeowner may receive a maximum of $24,000 in funds for a period not to exceed 12 months; additionally, homeowners who qualify for the UMAP can receive up to $18,000 towards any past due amounts on the first mortgage prior to UMAP payments being made. For MLRP, a one-time payment of up to $25,000 can be paid towards any past due amounts on the first mortgage. All funds will be disbursed by Florida Housing directly to the loan servicer on behalf of the homeowner.

Click here to return to the list of questions.

4. What are the terms of the assistance?

UMAP/MLRP program funds will be in the form of a zero percent interest, deferred-payment loan that will be subordinate to current mortgages on the home. The loan is forgiven at a rate of 20 percent starting 18 months after acceptance into the program (over a five-year period).

The homeowner will be required to complete a quarterly certification that she/he continues to be eligible for UMAP payments. See answer for question 12 for more information.

The UMAP/MLRP loan must be paid back if your home is sold prior to the end of the loan period and there are sufficient proceeds from the sale to pay all secured loans. Florida Housing will agree to make the UMAP/MLRP loan subordinate for homeowners who refinance their first mortgage to receive more favorable loan terms. However, if a homeowner refinance the first mortgage loan to consolidate debt or receive cash out, the homeowner will be required to repay the UMAP/MLRP loan according to the loan terms.

6. Are there other factors that could make me ineligible for funding?

Even if you meet all of the eligibility requirements listed above, there are a few instances in which you could be deemed ineligible for funding.

- You cannot be participating in a HAMP Trial Modification and receive Hardest-Hit funds. You will be contacted by your Servicer to verify if you want to remain in the HAMP Trial Modification or proceed with the HHF Program. Mortgage servicers may have different rules regarding the use of Hardest-Hit Funds with their proprietary, or in-house, modification programs.
In addition, current pending litigation on your primary residence mortgage — up to and including foreclosure proceedings with the mortgage lender, servicer or other parties—may result in a servicer choosing not to receive UMAP/MLRP mortgage payments on your behalf.

If you have received funding through the Florida Hardest-Hit Fund Principal Reduction program (HHF-PR), the total of your HHF assistance cannot exceed $92,000.

8. How do I apply?
To apply for the Florida HHF program, you will need to use our web-based system from a computer with Internet access. The website address is www.flHardestHitHelp.org. This site contains all the information you will need to begin your application for assistance, with step-by-step instructions and prompts to help you.

If you do not have access to the Internet from your residence, public computers can be found throughout many communities at public libraries, schools or educational centers, or government-run facilities in your county.

Note: If you receive a “referral code” from an approved Advisor Agency (which is a five-digit number that may be printed on HHF materials), you will need to type that number into the space titled “Referral Code” located on the first page of the online application to ensure you are automatically assigned to that specific Agency. You are not required to a referral code to complete the application; however, if you do not, you will be assigned to an Advisor Agency randomly. Florida Housing will not reassign you once the assignment has been made.

10. Can a homeowner be a part of another program (HAMP, HARP, other loan modifications and/or trial periods) or HHF-PR and still apply to receive Hardest-Hit Fund financial assistance?

11. How can I receive help during the application process?
If during the application process you are unsure as to how to complete the application, or you have any questions at all, please click the “Assign Me Now” button, which is located throughout the application. When you click this button, you will be immediately assigned to an advisor that can assist you through the application process. Once they have reached out to you, contact them regarding your questions about the application.

Click here to return to the list of questions.

12. What follow-up is required for the program?
Your assigned advisor is your ONLY point of contact. You will need to contact your advisor for follow-up and updates on your application. Do not call Florida Housing.

Be sure to check the email you used as your username at the beginning of the application, as well as your junk or spam mail folders. The first point of contact from your HHF Advisor may be by phone, but will most likely be by email. It may take up to 10 working days (excluding holidays and weekends) from the completion of your application for your advisor to contact you.

While mortgage payments are being made on your behalf, you will need to certify with your HHF Advisor that you are still unemployed/underemployed and experiencing a financial hardship. This will be done by checking bank statements, current paystubs, and other appropriate documentation of your situation or circumstances. If meetings are canceled and the required documentation not submitted to your HHF Advisor in the timeframe provided, you will be terminated from the program.

Click here to return to the list of questions.

13. I am more than 180 days delinquent on my first mortgage. Can I still apply to receive HHF financial assistance?
Yes. Under the most current HHF program eligibility requirements, the number of months your mortgage is delinquent is not considered in determining your eligibility; however, keep in mind that your mortgage servicer has the final say as to whether or not it will accept HHF payments on your behalf.

Click here to return to the list of questions.

14. What happens once I complete the online application?
Once you complete the required information on the website, your initial contact by your assigned advisor may be by phone, but most likely via email. If you have been given an appointment to meet with your advisor bring your required documents. Otherwise, fax or mail them to your advisor. Florida Housing will NOT contact you during the application process; Florida Housing only communicates with your advisor. Your assigned advisor is your point of contact and all of your questions should be directed to him/her.
